

New York State Office of the State Comptroller
Single/Sole Source Award

Pursuant to New York State Finance Law §163.10(b), the New York State Office of the State Comptroller (OSC) is presenting the following summary of relevant circumstances and substantial reasons why a competitive procurement was not feasible.

Category:	Utilities	Contract/Purchase Order Number:	OP23MS037
Title of Services:	Parts and supplies for electrical work for printer replacement at RTP2
Description:	Consistent with Section 144(2)(a) of the New York Economic Development Law (EDL), the NYS Office of State Comptroller (OSC) requested an exemption from publishing this procurement contract opportunity in the procurement opportunities newsletter (the NYS Contract Reporter). In accordance with Section 144(2)(b) of the EDL, the OSC Bureau of Contracts has granted the exemption.
On 08/08/2023, the Bureau of Contracts approved a request for exemption from giving notice in the New York State Contract Reporter for the purchase of parts and supplies necessary to complete electrical work for a printer replacement being performed by Kasselman Electric Co., Inc. Due to the complexity and nature of the critical services, it is not feasible for OSC to bid out individual parts for a project of this magnitude given the expertise required to evaluate the quality of the parts and manufacturers.
