Important Information Regarding This Form:

- Do not alter this form or make stipulations. The use of correction fluid or other alterations on this form will render the designation void
- If this form is not suited to the type of designation you prefer please advise the Retirement System. In the meantime, for your protection and the protection of your beneficiary(ies), you should make an interim designation using this form. If you wish to designate more beneficiaries than this form allows or designate a Guardianship or payment under the Uniform Transfers to Minors Act contact our office for the appropriate form. (Attachments to this form are unacceptable).
- New Beneficiary forms filed will supersede any previous designation. Therefore, if you want to add or delete a beneficiary, for example a new child, you must include on the new form all beneficiaries you wish to designate.
- Unborn children may not be designated as beneficiaries.
- The same person or persons cannot be designated as both primary and contingent beneficiaries. We can only make payment to a contingent beneficiary(ies) if all primary beneficiaries die before you do.
- If you wish to have these benefits distributed through your estate, you should name "my estate" as beneficiary. Your estate can be named as either primary or contingent beneficiary. However, if you name your estate as a primary beneficiary, you may not name any contingent beneficiary. (If all named beneficiaries predecease you, the benefit is paid to your estate).
- If you retired under an option that does not allow for a change of beneficiary you cannot change your survivor's benefit beneficiary unless your beneficiary is deceased and a copy of the death certificate is provided.

You can provide for payment to a trust if you have executed a Trust Agreement or have provided for a trust in your will.
