

Description of Data Elements/Retro Pay Summary Panel

Data Element	Definition
EmplID	An Employee Identification Number is the employee's identifying number for purposes of paying the employee.
Sequence Number	Random number assigned by PaySR to identify an employee's retroactive transactions. The highest sequence number is the most recent retroactive transaction that was updated on the employee's Job Data or Additional Pay record.
As of Date	The As of Date is the effective date of the retroactive action or earnings.
Dup	N/A
Request Type	Request type denotes if the retroactive adjustment resulted from an action on the Job Data panel or the Additional Pay panel.
Mass ID	N/A
Descr.	Descr is the long description for the retroactive code.
Status	Status indicates the status of the retroactive payment. The valid values for this field are as follows: Loaded PS The retroactive payment has been loaded to the paycheck. Calculated The retroactive payment will load to the next processed paycheck. Recalc The retroactive payment that was previously calculated and is now pending a recalculation due to another retroactive change being updated on the Job Data or Additional Pay panel.
Amount	The total retroactive adjustment amount for each earn code.